

Motor Industry sticks together once again

PHILIP PERDIKARIS

Chief Executive Officer MTA Apprenticeships Plus

RECENTLY we received news regarding one of our apprentices who had tragically lost his father.

The family was also hit with hard times financially and where having difficulty raising funds to pay for a funeral.

Our team distressed by the news decided to act quickly and set up a "funeral relief fund" to raise money for the apprentice's family.

In order to raise funds the team rang around all their existing host employers and explained the situation.

As a result they had managed to raise $6,930 for the family to assist them in their time of need.

It is inspiring to see an industry stick together to help out one of its own.

I would personally like to thank those that made a contribution by acknowledging them as follows:

- Suttons Holden Waitara
- Motor Traders Association of NSW
- MTA Apprenticeships Plus
- Bruce Collins Automotive
- Wolfsburg Motors
- Alogrep Mechanical
- South Coast Motor Group
- Mick Cole Motor Cycles
- All Straight Smash Repairs
- Hornsby Auto Group
- Taylor Engineering and Tools
- EKR Transmissions
- Hans Sauer Smash Repairs
- At Print
- Harrison Auto
- NRMA Motor Serve
- BT Motor Sport
- Highway Performance Bikes

- AA West Automotive Repairs
- Auto Plus
- Consolidated Lawyers
- BMW Sydney
- Brad Garlick Ford
- Robin Zanardo of GyMEA TAFE
- City Ford
- Browns Tyres

We have recently heard back from the family who have requested that we thank those who contributed.

This industry is known for sticking together and protecting their own and the contributions by those named is clear evidence of this.

It's comforting to see that in today's fast-moving business environment that humanity has not been put aside.
